Introduction

Faculty180 is a web-based faculty activity reporting system that provides a convenient, single place for faculty to record their contributions and accomplishments related to research/creative activity, teaching, credentials, and service. This information is used by the chairs and deans in the annual faculty evaluation process.

The recommended browsers for Faculty 180 are Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome, and Safari.
Other browsers may cause issues with functionality and display.

The Faculty180 Review Cycle

- The current review cycle will cover performance during the Summer 2020, Fall 2020, and Spring 2021 terms.
- Faculty Activities should be entered by May 19.
- Faculty Self-Evaluation (Certification) should be completed by May 19.
- Chairs will complete Faculty Evaluations between May 20 - June 11.
- Deans will complete Evaluation of Chairs as Faculty between May 20 - June 6.
- Deans will review and approve the Chair Evaluations between June 12 - June 30.

When should I enter my activities for the year?

You can enter your scholarly accomplishments, committee membership and other service activities at any time throughout the academic year, but it must be reviewed, updated and submitted on or before the Faculty Self-Evaluation (Certification) deadline: May 19, 2021.

General Tips

Logging Into Faculty180

Preferred method: Log into Faculty180 via the MyApps page, using your UNO credentials. Then click on the Faculty180 tile.

Alternate method: You can also log in via the Quick Links page, but this link will only work if you are already signed into MyApps.

(If you previously had a personal Interfolio login, do not log in using that info.)

If you cannot log into Faculty180 with either of these methods, contact Eileen Dooley at ebdooley@uno.edu.

Getting Back to a Previous Screen

It generally works better to use the “Go Back” button at the bottom of the screen rather than your browser’s back button.

Entering Your Data

Your Dashboard

When you log into Faculty180, you'll be taken to your dashboard. The dashboard will contain actions items in a Your Action Items list for processes such as annual evaluation.

Depending on when you are opening Faculty180, you may or may not have items assigned to you in the "Your Action Items" area. If the review cycle has begun, you should see items in this area.

Remember you can enter your activities at any point of the year.

Your Profile

Click on Profile and make sure your information is correct and update anything that may have changed. Make sure your education details are included as this information is sometimes needed for things like accreditation reports.

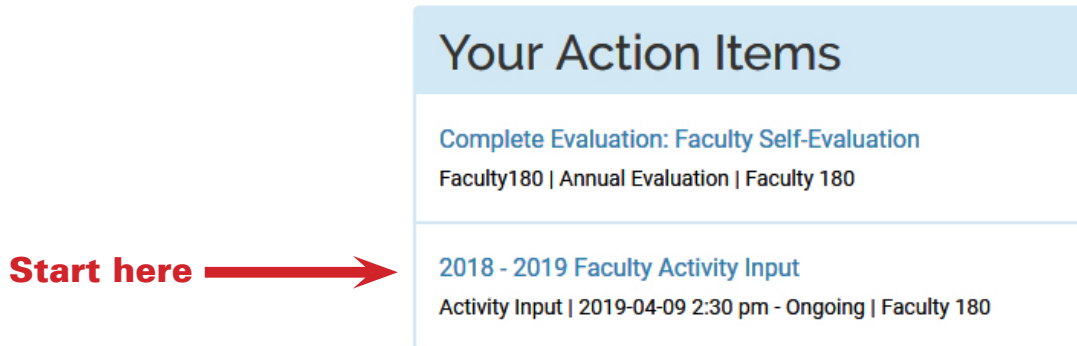

You can update your profile at any time if any of this information changes.

Your Activities

You will spend most of your time in the Activities area of Faculty180. This is where you will enter the details of your activities.

While you can enter your activities at any time of the year, you will need to enter your activities for the current review cycle before the Faculty Activity Input deadline. If the review cycle has begun, you will see an action item on your dashboard for Faculty Activity Input.

You may see the Complete Evaluation: Faculty Self-Evaluation item first in your Action Items list. However, your Faculty Activity Input needs to be completed before you do that step.

The screenshot shows the "Faculty Input" interface for "Scholarly and Creative Productivity". It features two main options: "Manual Input" and "Import". The "Manual Input" option has a dropdown menu currently set to "Select". The "Import" option has a radio button next to "Generic (RIS / BibTeX)". Below these options are two buttons: "Continue" and "Cancel". Both options have a help icon (question mark) in a blue circle.

How to Import Citations

See the Interfolio guidance on importing citations for Scholarly Contributions and Creative productions.

Where to Enter Certain Activities

For more information about entering activities, including guidance on where to put certain activities, see the Activity Input Form section on the Interfolio website.

Interfolio also has a free training webinar on Faculty Activity Input.

When you are finished entering all of your activities for the year, either Submit for Review, or Save and Go Back

Your next step is to submit your Self-Evaluation.

Submitting Your Self-Evaluation (Certification)

As part of the annual evaluation process, a faculty member is required to perform a “Self-Evaluation”, which certifies that the faculty member has input all of their pertinent activities for the review cycle.

Submitting the Self-Evaluation notifies the chair the faculty member is ready for the evaluation process to begin.

The Faculty Self-Evaluation should show up as an item on the Faculty Dashboard in the Your Action Items section when the review cycle is open.

Do this step after you finish your Faculty Activity Input
