

Lucy Nangomba-Bulmahn

Lucy is enrolled in the Master of Public Administration program at UNO specializing in Nonprofit Leadership. She earned her bachelor's degree at the University of Namibia, majoring in Economics. She is originally from Zambia and has been involved with nonprofits in Zambia, Germany and in New Orleans where she volunteers at the American Red Cross. She is enjoying her position as a graduate research assistant with UNO-CHART, and this opportunity has further developed her interest in focusing on sustainable development and issues surrounding climate change and hazard mitigation in the nonprofit field.
