Joint NINDS-NIMH Exploratory Neuroscience Research Grant (R21 Clinical Trial Optional)
National Institutes of Health (NIH), Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke (NINDS); National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH)

Notice seeking applications to support exploratory and innovative research projects, which fall within the missions of the NINDS and NIMH. Awards will provide support for the early and conceptual stages of projects. These studies often assess the feasibility of a novel avenue of investigation and involve considerable risk, but have the potential to bring about breakthroughs in the understanding of important areas of neuroscience, or to the development of novel techniques, agents, methodologies, or models, of high value to the neuroscience community.

Applications are due annually on June 16, October 16, and February 16. Program expires May 8, 2024.

FY21 Defense Established Program to Stimulate Competitive Research (DEPSCoR) – Research Collaboration (RC)
Department of Defense (Defense), Air Force Office of Scientific Research (AFOSR)

Notice seeking proposals to: (1) increase the number of university researchers in eligible States/Territories capable of performing science and engineering (S&E) research responsive to the needs of the DoD; and (2) enhance the capabilities of institutions of higher education (IHE) in eligible States/Territories to develop, plan, and execute S&E research that is relevant to the mission of the DoD, and competitive under the peer-review systems used for awarding Federal research assistance; (3) increase the probability of long-term growth in the competitively awarded financial assistance that IHE in eligible States receive from the Federal Government for S&E research. This funding opportunity aims to create basic research collaborations between a pair of researchers.

White papers are due September 20, 2021. Invited proposals are February 22, 2022. Registration on nVision and Q&A are due September 16, 2021. Approximately $12.6 million is available to support 21 awards.
