FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Can I move in later than the week of August 6?

If you are unable to move-in between August 6 through 12 on the scheduled hours, please email ResidentialLife@uno.edu.

What should I do to plan for my arrival on-campus?

Please be on time. Your check-in time is for you to retrieve your key, complete our check-in paperwork, and have your ID programmed by an Office of Residential Life staff member at the front desk of your hall.

Where do I pick up mail and packages on-campus?

There is a post office located on campus. You must set up a mailbox with them. They are located in the University Center. There is also a post office box rental fee associated with mailbox set up. Please do not send mail to the halls, as it will be sent back.

3 Months $20 • 6 Months $30 • 9 Months $40 • 12 months $50

I need to get a UNO ID Card. How do I get one?

The ID Card Office will be open Monday- Friday between the hours of 9 am- 4 pm on the first floor of the Computer Center Building next to the Earl K Long Library for students to pick up their ID.

What if my suite mates and I do not work out?

You are highly encouraged to complete the Roommate Agreement posted to your Residential Life app before beginning a roommate relationship as the items discussed during the Roommate Agreement process will assist in building a strong roommate relationship and understanding. Be open and honest during this discussion.

If you are still having issues, contact your RA for assistance with mediation. If the issues are unable to be resolved via mediation, contact the Residential Life professional staff at ResidentialLife@uno.edu for additional assistance.

WELCOME CARE PACKAGES AND LINENS

Dormify works with the Office of Residential Life to offer students and their families options for linens and care packages. Dormify offers a variety of bedding styles and colors which may appeal to you. uno.edu/housing/parents-students-service

Things to Consider Sharing

While living in Pontchartrain Halls, residents have the opportunity to live with up to three other suite-mates who share a common space. We recommend connecting with your suite-mates as soon as you know who you're living with! Think about what items you use on a regular basis and decide if you want to coordinate any items.

Here are Some Recommended Items to Share:

- Mini Fridge
- TV
- Microwave
- Hand/Stick Vacuum
- Decorative Area Rugs

Hurricane Preparation

University officials regularly monitor weather conditions. During hurricane season (July-November), university officials monitor and track hurricanes, tropical storms and tropical depressions for potential to impact our university community. As per university hurricane protocol, students are notified of university preparations for a storm which may potentially impact our community via the following means: University of New Orleans Email, Text Alerts and the university website. Safety protocols during a hurricane or tropical storm may vary depending on the strength and path of the storm.
