HEALTH and MENTAL HEALTH

AHRQ Health Services Research Projects; Small Health Services Research Grant Program; and Health Services Research Demonstration and Dissemination Grants

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

Notice seeking proposals for health services research grant applications focused on AHRQ research priorities, including improving healthcare quality and patient safety, improving healthcare delivery and practice improvement, and enhancing whole-person healthcare delivery. Available mechanisms include: R18 Research Demonstration and Dissemination Projects; R03 Small Research Grant Programs; and R01 Research Project Grants.

Proposal due dates vary by project type. Multiple awards of each type are anticipated.

Investigating Distinct and Overlapping Mechanisms in TDP-43 Proteinopathies, including in LATE, FTD and other ADRDs (R01 - Clinical Trial Not Allowed)

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, National Institutes of Health

Notice seeking proposals for establishing deeper mechanistic insight and causal relationships between TDP-43 pathology and phenotypic outcomes, as well as mechanistic interactions between TDP-43 and other co-pathologies, such TMEM106B.

Proposals are due June 4, 2024. Estimated $4.5 million is available to fund up to six awards.

Advancing Learning Health Care Research in Outpatient Mental Health Treatment Settings (R34 Clinical Trial Optional)

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, National Institutes of Health

Notice seeking proposals for pilot effectiveness, implementation, data science, and services research studies that will advance data-driven learning health care in behavioral health treatment settings, leading to better knowledge and tools for implementing, sustaining, and optimizing evidence-based, high quality, and equitable mental health services in community settings.

Proposals are due June 16, 2024. Multiple awards are anticipated.

NIDCD Research Career Enhancement Award for Established Investigators (K18 Clinical Trial Not Allowed; K18 Clinical Trial Required; and K18 Independent Basic Experimental Studies with Humans Required)

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, National Institutes of Health

Notice seeking proposals to enable established, proven investigators to augment or redirect their research programs through the acquisition of new research skills to answer questions relevant to the hearing, balance, smell, taste, voice, speech and language sciences. Available mechanisms include K18 Independent Basic Experimental Studies with Humans Required; K18 Clinical Trial Not Allowed; and K18 Clinical Trial Required.

Proposals are due June 10, 2024. Multiple awards of each type are anticipated.

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING, and MATHEMATICS

Accelerated Research in Quantum Computing
Energy

Notice seeking applications that advance the field of quantum computing by developing enabling end-to-end software infrastructures.

Required pre-applications are due March 13, 2024. Estimated $45 million is available to fund multiple awards.

BioLogical Undersea Energy (BLUE) Proposers Day
Defense

Notice announcing a proposers' day for Biological Undersea Energy. The BioLogical Undersea Energy (BLUE) program seeks to develop technologies to continuously provide electrical power that will expand the capabilities of remote, ocean-deployed sensor systems. Such systems hold great potential for national security, understanding dynamics of marine environments, and monitoring marine climate change.

The proposers day will be held February 15, 2024 from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Registrations are due by February 12, 2024 at <https://events.sa-meetings.com/BLUEPD/>. Advance registration is required.

Notice of Partnering Opportunity (NPO) - Flight to Space Incubator for a Compact Hyperspectral CubeSat
National Aeronautics and Space Administration

Notice seeking a partnership with NASA's Glenn Research Center to focus on the development of a compact hyperspectral imager (HSI) that has low size, weight, and power requirements and can, in the future, be implemented in a constellation that is able to quantify the light field (e.g., absorption and attenuation) of numerous freshwater systems that are too small to be observed by an HSI with low spatial resolution and long revisit times.

Responses are due February 23, 2024. Questions are due February 16, 2024.
