 - a. VASA Paper Lantern Bill
 - Senator Kyser with Victoria Pham a student involved with VASA. Requesting $589.64 from senate operating for paper lantern night. This is a social event and it happens every fall to celebrate a new harvest season for good luck. This event is September 23, from 7-10PM in the Alumni Center. There will be dancing, singing, line dancing, nerf gun poster board DIY, a photo booth, and free food with free admission. This is also a privateer plunge event and all proceeds go to the storm victims.
 - b. Party In Pink Bill
 - Treva brown, from department of chemistry. Zumbathon, a review from 2016 when it was sponsored by SGA. It's a breast cancer prevention/Zumba party and all proceeds go towards research for this cause. This will be our fourth year doing the event on campus. We will have a live dj, henna art, prizes, and donations are encouraged. There is not an admission fee for this event. Since the first year, it has been getting larger and we expect over 200 attendees due to how prompt it is. Welcoming all children, students, family, and friends to come. You can visit Zumba.com and nola.com has gotten into it due to how large it has gotten. We are requesting funds for a DJ, a stage, and decorations decorations, pricing at $1700. SGA has sponsored up before and look forward to making this event happen again. This event will be on Sept 30, from 10-12PM in the UNO recreation center.

6 yes, 1 abstention, 0 No

c. Soccer Club 1.0 Bill

- Eric , AKA coach K. Sponsor for soccer registered 78 participants.. this is for a soccer club, we will play other schools, but we want to make sure every one get s a change to play. $450 allows them to play in college collegiate through Louisiana. We are currently fixing up the field to make it more safe for players.
- Olivero- what is the ongoing cost of program?

Investment is safety with water and equipment and main costs are for the new soccer goals.

- Kyser- This is just the registration fee for 22 players
- Olivero- how does it help the UNO community as a whole?
- We have a lot are international students and the beauty is that it connects everyone together, UNO is a global institution so we would like to represent UNO.
- Nigel- this will be an initial start for a large soccer team and will open a door for students to see the games.
- Eric- We also had students in the past to help pay for the goals, we truly appreciate it.
