A Procedural Amendment

This is a procedural amendment to clarify which members of the senate are allowed to vote for Vice President of Legislative Affairs.

Whereas, This rule is not clarified in neither the constitution nor the by-laws and has raised questions in the past;

Whereas, the lack of clarity in the current documents have caused confusion and dissention in previous years;

Whereas, the seated senate has worked with the the Vice President of Legislative Affairs candidates, and therefore are better suited to make an informed choice;

Whereas, it is the opinion of Governance Committee that this amendment would benefit the Student Government Association and the student body at large.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW ORLEANS STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION THAT:

- I. Only Senators who have served in the spring term will be the senators allowed to vote for the next year's Vice President of Legislative Affairs.

Example: Senators who served the 2017 Spring Term will be the senators voting for the Vice President of Legislative Affairs for the 2017-2018 academic year.
